- Excellence

Objective

The major goal of IQAC is to ensure the quality of the institution's system and operations.

Functions

Some of the functions of IQAC are:

- Development and implementation of benchmark of academic, administrative and other service benchmark.
- Making a conducive environment for teaching, learning and professional development.
- Analysis of feedback and execution of recommendations.
- Activity documentation.
- Examination of teaching -learning processes and systems.
- Acting as a nodal agency of the institution for quality related activities.
- Preparation and submission of AQARs.

I. Curricular Aspects

The school hopes to give horizontal and vertical mobility to the rural, socially, and economically disadvantaged students. More skill-based short term courses must be offered, in accordance with the national skill development policy and NAAC core values. In accordance with the academic calendar, IQAC act as a tool for creating a collaborative or field based curriculum that allows students to experience the learning.

II .A. Teaching, Learning & Evaluation

The institution will work to meet the unique requirements of students with various backgrounds and skill levels and will use a differentiated approach to achieve the best outcomes. The teaching and learning process will be more effective when traditional and student centric methods are thoughtfully combined with ICT use. Faculty will be urged to incorporate modern technology into their daily operations. There will be orientation programmes organised for the teachers to provide them with latest technologies.

B. Student Mentoring

Student mentoring is now a reality. Objectives of this policy would be:

- To provide mentees with a support network during the pivotal stages of their intellectual, professional, and academic development.
- To offer the pupils emotional support.
- To support students in developing life skills through programs that emphasize service and value-based education.
- To give teaching staff members the chance to comprehend the viewpoints and attitudes of pupils"
- To improve student learning abilities, identifying strengths and weaknesses, guiding for overall development, solving personal and academic issues.
- To increase their participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

For assisting slow learners-a designated committee will be established. The mentor assist the student to develop and channel his or her abilities and talents through a suitable institution activity.

III. A. Promotion of Research

A key objective is to strengthen the research culture and creativity among academics and students. Organizing conferences, seminars, workshops, and contests with a scientific focus, there will be incentives for instructors and students to deliver research papers, publish in journals, and conduct research initiatives. The institution will offer the necessary resources. The pursuit of research guidance will be encouraged for qualified teachers. Teachers and students will be inspired to think imaginatively, and an innovative ecosystem will be developed. There will be organised seminars, conferences, and workshops.

B. Extension Activities:

Extension programmes in the local community and beyond, give students worthwhile learning opportunities and advance the development of an educated society. By involving departments and other cells in addition to NSS and DLLE, the institution hopes to broaden its reach. Numerous social issues will be addressed like (by organizing blood donation camp every year, over thousand successful trees plantation, cleanliness, construction of Vanrai Bandhara)and the institution will get in touch with the relevant individuals and organizations. The goal is to coordinate your efforts with those of the federal and state governments, such as the AIDS Awareness campaign and the Swaccha Bharat Abhiyan. Activities involving GOs and NGOS will be preferred in collaboration.

IV. Infrastructure and Learning Resources

The academic and physical infrastructure must be improved in light of the policy to launch new courses and programmes for student horizontal and vertical mobility. IQAC will provide the necessary recommendations for classrooms in this regard, facilities for testing and research, ICT infrastructure, and campus expansion' Objectives of this policy would be:

- To provide cutting-edge infrastructure for the college's educational, co-curricular, extracurricular, and administrative demands.

The institution has open processes in place for handling complaints. Cell for Redress of Grievances. The institution has been an internal complaints committee and an anti-ragging cell. Any complaints from the individual are presented to the relevant cells in a proper manner. Students are free to voice complaints to the Principal and department heads as well. A specialized helpdesk should be set up to address any confusion or complaints regarding admittance to different academic degrees and Examination.

Generally, the concerns are resolved in four stages. Depending on whom it is concerned students approached to particular section:

1. Departments: The heads of departments address complaints with the assistance of colleagues and make efforts to find solutions.
2. Grievance Redressal Cell/ICC/Anti-Ragging Cell: Concerned cells respond to complaints and attempt to resolve issues in accordance with rules and procedures.

VI. A. Administrative Policy

The college's administrative structure, which extends from management to students, operates efficiently and successfully, and tasks and responsibilities are properly decentralized. From admissions to exam results and beyond, transparency, efficient governance, and prompt administrative services are the guiding principles that benefit students. The college will maintain proper communication and a cordial connection with other groups, including university administration, public officials, non-governmental organizations, faculty and support staff, students, parents, and alumni. Events for staff members' professional and personality development will be planned.

All Committees and Departments works on the principle of Equality and Democracy.

B. e-Governance

Institution always adheres about implementing e- governance in the management system and maintain large volumes of information such as admission, result, examination and security. For library the KOHA software is already installed.

C. Feedback System

Improving quality requires feedback on how the institution is operating. The Feedback Committee solicits feedback on institutional procedures, teachers and curricular elements. The reports are deliver to IQAC after the feedback has been examined. To put the recommendations into practice, IQAC creates an action plan. Suggestions for improvement are sent to the Principal and relevant authorities. Teachers receive comments from students about their performance. Every year, during the Alumni and Parents' Meeting, feedback from alumni and parents is gathered. Their recommendations are positively carried out. The opinions of teachers are also included into institutional procedures and curricular elements. Conveners collect feedback from attendees after gatherings like conferences and workshops to make improvements.

VII. A. Gender Equality Policy

Women development cell was developed with the goal of raising awareness about gender-neutral society. In order to reach full potential of female students and carry out their duties and responsibilities as equally as their male counterparts. A variety of empowerment programs, health-related issues, psychological issues, and awareness programs like Self Defense Workshop, Orientation programs, HB testing camp will be arranged. The women's Development Cell will work harder to achieve its goals.

B. Environment Policy

Our guiding principle is to "Green practice and Environmental care." In order to do this, we take steps to make the environment more aesthetically pleasing and pollution- and plastic-free. NSS unit along with IQAC takes measures such as tree plantation in and off campus, plastic free campus campaign, promotion of LED bulbs.

C Divyangan policy

To address the requirements of physically challenged students and foster a divyangan-friendly environment on campus a specialised divyangan welfare committee will be established. The committee shall offer hassle-free and favorable treatment during admissions, library etc. and assure academic advancement.

Admission policy:

Purpose
